

Minister of Infrastructure says he will enhance Paraná's rail network

20/04/2020

Paraná Partnerships

The Minister of Infrastructure, Tarcísio Gomes, spoke on Wednesday (16) in a live with President Bolsonaro, about the railroads in Brazil and stressed that he will enhance the South Network, in reference to the State of Paraná. “We will increase the flow capacity to the Port of Paranaguá / PR and expand Ferroeste. In the future, we will connect Manaus and Porto Alegre by rail and waterway modes”, he said. Check out the video.